Bienvenido

Del Rio, Texas is located 154 miles directly west of San Antonio on the Texas-Mexico border and is the gateway to west Texas. Access is easy through highway 90, 277/377.

Del Rio, is the county seat of Val Verde County, and is just across the border from Ciudad Acuña, Coahuila, Mexico via our international bridge or Lake Amistad. Del Rio is also home to Laughlin Air Force Base, the busiest pilot training base in the United States Air Force.

“The Queen City of the Rio Grande” is the principal city of the Micropolitan Statistical Area, with an estimated county-wide population of over 50,000 residents. Located just across the Rio Grande River, our sister-city, Ciudad Acuña, with a population of over 225,000 residents.

You’ll be surprised and delighted with the wide range of attractions and activities available in Del Rio. From scenic San Felipe Creek, to Lake Amistad; from First Friday Art Walks to the Val Verde Winery; and from Downtown shopping to the many historical sites located around the city. Del Rio has much to offer and is a true treasure just waiting to be explored.
